

Chicago
SUNDAY

6/11/72

Miller has moved WMAQ from seventh to fourth place in the red-hot morning race, behind WGN's Wally Phillips, the perennial leader; Lujack, and WBBM radio.

THE HEADLINERS: Robert Wagner and Natalie Wood are telling intimates they'll tie the knot late this summer. It'll be the second time around for them....

Dick Gregory, the Thin Man currently starring at the Upstairs at the Downstairs in New York, is the latest celebrity signed to cover the Democratic convention. He'll yak for Pacifica radio network.... Bill Bittman, the former Chicagoan who, as the "whiz kid" of the Department of Justice, prosecuted Jimmy Hoffa and Bobby Baker, now is representing Emprise Corp. in hearings before the House Select Committee on Crime. On leaving the government, Bill entered private practice.

NATALIE WOOD

ONCE OVER QUICKLY: When Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) declared he could, under certain conditions, accept Gov. George Wallace as a running mate, he was subjected to severe criticism from many quarters. But we didn't hear the same blasts when Rep. Shirley Chisholm (D-N.Y.) made a similar statement about Wallace. . . . Hollywood columnist
