

Know NYTimes today says Bittman quit as Hunt's counsel at Cox's request. Isn't it odd that here and in Post, which didn't mention this, so little play? Friedman told me Times part. I indicated to him, for following, what possible conflicts can be. I can visualize Cox interest in Bittman per se and via CIA. Also the now unheard of Caddy, who has been on my mind lately.
He has and will send Boston story on Din, Bradstreet
