

Book Picks: "The Palace Guard" by CBS newsmen Dan Rather and Gary Paul Gates expertly catches the piranha quality of the Nixon White House. There, H.R. Haldeman manipulates Spiro Agnew, John Ehrlichman sneers at honorable men like Bob Finch as "the Pasadena Hamlet" and Pat Moynihan a "our Oscar Wilde," and a Secret Service man loathingly confides that "We say...come the revolution, be sure and save two bullets: one for Haldeman and one for Ehrlichman."
