Miami Realtor Called Leader of Break-In

WASHINGTON—The apparent leader of five men, arrested Saturday for breaking into the headquarters of the Democratic National Committee here, was identified Sunday as an affluent Miami realtor with important Republican party links in Florida.
He was also said to have been one of the top planners of the Central Intelligence Agency's abortive invasion of Cuba in 1961.

Five men were arrested at gun point in the raid. The police said that they possessed sophisticated eavesdropping devices and photographic equipment.

The five alleged raiders are being held at the District of Columbia jail. Private and official sources who know the five suspects and their background said that the leader was Cuban-born Bernard L. Barker, who, under the code name of "Macho," acted for the CIA in planning the Bay of Pigs operation.

At the time of his arrest, Barker gave his address as 955 First Street Southwest, Miami. That is the office of Miguel R. Suarez, a Cuban exile lawyer prominent in Republican politics in Florida.

Barker is president of Barker Associates, Inc., a real estate company. That address is 2301 Northwest Seventh Street, Miami. But he is also Suarez's partner in a separate venture.

The CIA dissociated itself from all aspects of the pre-dawn raid.
