

7/25/73
ANDERSON

W Post

* Former White House aide Charles Colson, who has been accused in the Watergate testimony of forging documents framing President Kennedy for the murder of South Vietnam's President Diem and fabricating a new version of Chappaquiddick, recently tried to make his peace with Sen. Ted Kennedy (D-Mass.). Colson made three requests for an appointment, but Kennedy refused to see him . . .