

In case you missed it, Eric Sevareid pulled a great, dry line tonight in comment on Colson's finding of religion: If he does not claim to be able to walk on water, at least he has foresworn walking on grandmothers.

And if you missed Billy Graham's Sermon on the Mount of Nixon, you missed much. It condenses into everyone else in the world is wrong, so repent, sinners, e'er it is too late!

HW 12/17/73