

EXCLUSIVE

the Village VOICE June 13, 1974

NIXON LINKED TO MAFIA?

Penthouse probes
6 questions everyone
is afraid to ask.

■ Why did a mob-connected Miami bank finance Nixon's Fisher Island stock purchase?

■ Why did Lou Chesler, known front man for syndicate Boss, Meyer Lansky, donate thousands to Nixon's 1960 campaign fund?

■ Why did various teamster officials, each named by Penthouse, get early releases from prison; escape prosecution altogether and pay for such favors with traceable campaign donations?

■ How did Nixon's 1952 visit to a mob-operated casino in Cuba connect more recently with the controversial $100,000 Howard Hughes 1972 campaign contribution?

■ Why did Bebe Rebozo in 1968 pick a construction firm headed by former Cleveland mobster "Big Al" Polizzi to build his Miami shopping center?

■ How did ex-teamster president, Dave Beck, a man with powerful racketeer connections, wrangle a moratorium on paying $1,300,000 in back taxes?

July issue on your newsstand today.

PENTHOUSE

The magazine with everything to lose.