Financial reports on the presidential campaign showed yesterday that President Nixon's fund-raising units are flush with cash while Sen. George McGovern's are deep in debt.

Mr. Nixon's four principal financial units—the Finance, TV, Radio and Media committees, to re-elect the President—together had $3,970,767 in cash on hand as of Aug. 31. They had spent $18,021,270 since April 7, the effective date of the Federal Elections Campaign Act, according to reports filed with the General Accounting Office.

One of the Democratic candidate's two principal committees, McGovern for President, Inc., had cash on hand of $9,678 as of Aug. 31, but the other had a negative balance of $54,767. The picture was made even bleaker by the two committees' net indebtedness of an additional $846,675. Their expenditures came to $8,150,774.

The Nixon committees, drawing on unidentified donors, had more than $10 million on hand on April 7. Since then, their reports show, they have received an additional $5,979,440 in contributions, including $1,659,196 in the three-week period Aug. 10 through Aug. 31.

The McGovern committees

reported contributions through Aug. 31 of $4,383,576, including $2,199,912 in the almost 10 weeks since McGovern for President, Inc., now the senator's principal committee, was formed.

The reports available yesterday gave only a partial glimpse of the financing of either campaign. Still to be processed, for example, are reports from most of the state Nixon and McGovern units. Not until today, moreover, will the GAO have available the working papers that identify the sources of $2,064,467 in loans made to McGovern for President, Inc.

A preliminary check of the filings available yesterday showed these additional highlights:

• W. T. Duncan, a Bryan, Tex., investor, rancher and auto dealer who gave a reported $300,000 to the unsuccessful presidential bid of Democrat Hubert H. Humphrey, now has been listed for $30,000 in contributions to President Nixon—$6,000 each to the Television and Media committees to re-elect the President, and to the New Jersey, Oklahoma and Maine Finance committees to re-elect the President.

• Ray A. Kroc of Chicago, chairman and chief executive officer of the McDonald hamburger chain, is listed for $39,000 to Nixon units, including $22,000 to four state affiliates.

*Major new McGovern donors, listed by McGovern for President—D.C., include Frederick G. Worden, a professor at Massachusetts Institute of Technology and a physician, $20,000, and Stanley Kaplan, an executive of radio station WAYS in Charlotte, N.C., $15,000.

• Two contributions to Nixon units totaling $5,488 were listed for Michael D. Andreas, an executive of Archer-Daniels-Midland. His father, Dwayne Andreas, also in the firm, who had been a top Humphrey contributor, gave a $25,000 check to a Nixon committee before April 7, expecting it not to be disclosed—but it later was, as an outgrowth of the Watergate affair.
