Dear Mr. Williams,

Thanks for your fast response.

Whenever you may want to talk to me, I will be available. I believe there are more possibilities than I indicated in my hasty letter.

I presume you are conducting the kind of investigation I could not. I hope this includes learning the real identities of some of these characters in their other lives. On the basis of what is public, for example, it is not impossible that Hunt and Barker may be the mysterious Frank Bender and Bernie of Bay of Pigs infamy. The definitive work on that lists only one Nacho, a priest. And no Eduardo.

Good luck! If you really get to the bottom of this, you will have done a great service to more than your client.

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg

HR- try this on the guff tou have been fed. I wrote him Sunday 25. He was in court on this case yesterday, 26, and is otherwise a pretty busy man. He is one of Earl Warren's closest friends. And today I have his yesterday's letter. You read mine to him, so you know I also reminded him of the past. Of course, this is confidential. I suggest it bears on the hasty, before-breakfast letter I wrote you this a.m. And on the dependability and the motive of those who have been telling you such stuff.
