

Legion Head Urges 'Adequate Security'

5 10/11/13
KEARNEY, Neb., Dec. 3

(UPI)—The national commander of the American Legion said in a speech Sunday there was a "real need for an adequate system of security" and warned against slacking off militarily because of the wind down of U.S. involvement in Southeast Asia.

Robert E. L. Eaton said the Legion would be the "last to deny that many social needs cry out for attention," but said "we are reminded of the real need for an adequate system of security."