As I read WxPost Dean story, GL in on cover-up, I want to note before I can forget that there is a witness who might be willing to risk truthfulness, Dean's secretary, to whom he daily dictated summaries of his day. She is probably the one who risked WH ire in handling Dean's out-of-channels original press statement. On the haher hand, what she then suffered may have turned her off permanently. She can easily "forget" dteails of his dictation. HW 6/3/73
