

6-5-73

NYT

N.B.C.-TV to Resume
Coverage of Watergate

When the Senate Watergate hearings resume at 10 A.M. Eastern daylight time, today, only one of the commercial television networks, the National Broadcasting Company, will present continuous live coverage.

Under terms of a rotation agreement, the Columbia Broadcasting System will carry the hearings tomorrow, and Thursday's session will be televised by the American Broadcasting Company. Channels 13 and 31 will present live coverage daily and repeat it on videotape beginning at 8 P.M.

On radio, the hearings will be carried live by stations WINS, WBAI, WNYC and WRVR.