

'Watergate Caper' Probe Said to Clear Nixon

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The denial candidate George Justice Department has finished McGovern, have brought up the its investigation of the case in their campaign to put Watergate case without Nixon out of the White House, implicating any present officials but Republicans have denied of either the White House or any responsibility for the break-President Nixon's re-election in and apparent bugging at-campaign committee. The tempt. Washington Post reported today.

The newspaper said sources close to the investigation also said that a federal grand jury is expected within 10 days to hand down indictments that will be confined to suspects actively involved in the break-in.

The case goes back to June 17, when five men — including two with close ties to the Committee for the Re-Election of President Nixon — were arrested inside the Democratic National Committee headquarters in the Watergate Hotel complex in Washington. Eavesdropping and photographic equipment was seized by police.
