

Julie -- He Won't Quit

Washington

Julie Nixon Eisenhower said yesterday she does not believe her father would ever resign from the presidency because of any Watergate scandal revelations.

The President's 24-year-old daughter said in an interview on NBC-TV:

"I don't ever think he'd leave office early."

"He really loves this country," she added. "When the going gets rough . . . I doubt he would leave."
