

Sen. Inouye Denies Comment of 'Liar'

The testimony of John D. Erlichman before the Senate Watergate committee yesterday drew a caustic comment from one member of the committee, Sen. Daniel K. Inouye (D-Hawaii).

After completing his questioning of the former presidential adviser, Sen. Inouye muttered: "What a liar."

Inouye later denied making the remark, but when told that his statement had been picked up by his microphone and recorded by UPI, he said, "Well, I guess I must have been speaking of myself."
