

FBI Agents Charged

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. — Five FBI agents were charged Wednesday with assaulting the son of U.S. Rep. Robert Macdonald, and two other persons as they tried to investigate a suspicious truck parked in their neighborhood.

Torbert Macdonald Jr., Patrick Roach and James Ball filed complaints in East Cambridge District Court charging the agents with assault with dangerous weapons, assault and battery and malicious destruction of property.

Macdonald and Roach said they approached the van Tuesday when they saw a man inside with a camera apparently taking pictures of the neighborhood. He

Post 9/7/73