

Jim, if you gave Anderson the unopened letter I had sent to Fiorini he has not returned the envelope, as I'd asked, nor have I heard from him. He would not have found this a great chore. He has a staff, including secretaries. He also pretends to be a friend of Fiorini, which makes his silence more suspect, if you did give him that envelope. I was reminded of this by the new Miami charges against Fiorini. And the announced defense line plus its demands....Jerry's brother-in-law Paul Carson covers Pompano Beach for the Fort Lauderdale News. I don't know whether he would regard it as wise to get back stories on Buchanan so I'll not ask him. EW 9/17/73
