

Rt. 8, Frederick, Md. 21701
12/1/73

Dear Paul,

Norman (Life Line) Larsen is of immediate interest to me, as are some of his friends, especially in connection with the campaigns against Justices Douglas and Fortas.

Can you help?

He does connect with people of whom you have been reading lately.

Unless you haven't had time to do any reading!

Of these, one seems to have crossed my path some years ago.

It was not to my advantage!

Guess I live in a very small world.

Hope things are going well with you.

I mailed a friend the long New York Times story on the bugging trial (the criminal one) and it never reached him. So I don't have it and I never heard how the trial ended.

I was quite surprised to learn, by accident, that the brothers hired themselves one of the very best of the more radical of the ACLU-type lawyers. In his specialities he is close to the top in professional competence. In this case he was on the side against which he usually is. I guess this is the way he finances the other work.

Best regards, thanks for anything you can do, and hope you have a nice holiday coming up.

Sincerely,
