

Ford Watcher

Ricardo Thomas has been appointed by President Ford as assistant to David H. Kennerly, Mr. Ford's personal photographer. Thomas, 31, originally from Jacksonville, Fla., becomes the first black White House photographer. He has worked as a photographer for United Press International and Time magazine.

From staff reports and news dispatches

Post 9-14-74