

Newsweek, 3 Dec 73, p. 34.

From story on Ford nomination hearings:

" In the end, the only blemish on Ford's record appeared to be a possible impropriety in profiting from a magazine article and a book he co-authored after serving on the Warren Commission. 'An indiscretion,' one staffer put it, 'but nothing more.'"