

Senator Kennedy. Did these reports which are alleged in the newspaper about the relationship between Mr. Dean and Mr. Hunt, come as a complete surprise to you?

Mr. Gray. Well, I guess you would have to say I was surprised to read that because of the fact we had absolutely no information, out of all the many trails that we crossed throughout our interviews, that this would be so. I just must believe, Senator Kennedy, that it is not correct.

Senator Kennedy. Then in the pursuit of Mr. Liddy, you didn't run into any kind of trails of Mr. Liddy in conversations with Mr. Dean about the finances of the organization?

Mr. Gray. No, sir, none that I recall. Of course, we were not permitted to interview Mr. Liddy. But we tried to trace their pattern of movement, Mr. Liddy's and Mr. Hunt's, where they might have gone and who they telephoned and that sort of thing, and it just didn't show up.
