2/26/74
NYT

2 Groups Reported Investigating Possibility of Perjury by Gray

By JOHN M. CREWDSON

WASHINGTON — The death of the bureau's former director, J. Edgar Hoover, on May 2, 1972, was announced to the committee [illegible] investigation of Feb. 17, 1928. After the [illegible] Mr. Gray's name was added to [illegible] and Government officials [illegible].

After the first published [illegible] February, Mr. Gray told the [illegible] which was holding the [illegible] mation hearings that he had [illegible] inquired and found no [illegible] of any such [illegible].

The New York Times reported last December, [illegible] that a copy of the F.B.I. [illegible] ment it had obtained showed [illegible] that Mr. Gray [illegible] advised in advance of his [illegible] mony of the conversations [illegible] which was defined by the [illegible] had included nearly [illegible] over a two-year period.

Sources close to the special prosecutor's [illegible] the one by a Senate Judiciary Committee subcommittee [illegible] M. Kennedy [illegible] achusetts [illegible] possible evetual prosecution of Mr. Gray for having committed perjury before the Senate.

Mr. Gray, who had been [illegible] ing director of the F.B.I. [illegible]

After the [illegible] ports of the wiretaps [illegible] Mr. Gray resigned as [illegible] Senate Judiciary [illegible] which was holding the [illegible] pressed Mr. Gray during [illegible] inquired and found [illegible] of any such [illegible]

The New York Times reported last December, [illegible] that a copy of the F.B.I. [illegible] ment it had obtained showed [illegible] that Mr. Gray [illegible] advised in advance of his [illegible] mony of the conversations [illegible] which was defined by the [illegible] had included nearly [illegible] over a two-year period.

Sources close to the special prosecutor's [illegible] the one by a Senate Judiciary Committee subcommittee [illegible] M. Kennedy [illegible] achusetts [illegible] possible evetual prosecution of Mr. Gray for having committed perjury before the Senate.

Mr. Gray, who had been [illegible] ing director of the F.B.I. [illegible]

But the F.B.I. document stated that a full report of the tapes had been prepared for him that [illegible] Gray, and stated that he had [illegible] of the secret [illegible] operation before [illegible]