

"A powerful, straight-on, factual spell-binder, describing step by step how Agnew was finally nailed....A Heartbeat Away lays it wide open, sparsely, deftly, undeniably." —ARTHUR MILLER

"The astonishing story behind the astonishing story...the personalities involved, the frenzied meetings, pressures and counterpressures at the highest level....A must." —Kirkus Reviews

"Packed with the kind of interior detail that makes for first-class journalism. ...For the first time the full story of the incredible drama that led to Agnew's resignation. This is sophisticated, compelling political reportage—a sad book, a necessary book, and for historic reasons an important book....The denouement is gripping. The book will make news." —Publishers Weekly
