

JL- Some time ago I suggested it might be worth checking a Fortune story by one Charles Murphy. The name seemed a little familiar but I could not place it. Today I have a solicitation from Bill Buckley to subscribe his his beobachter. One of the reasons is the writers. These include Charles J.V. Murphey, who could be the same, the one with the Cuban-Bay <sup>r</sup>igs interests of the past. I still don't recall why the name seemed familiar, though. HW 2/13/74
