WATERGATE DATA OF TWO CRITICIZED

SAN DIEGO, July 3 (AP)—Representative Bob Wilson, Republican of California, said Tuesday that H. R. Haldeman and John D. Ehrlichman, former White House aides, exhibited erratic memories in testimony before a Congressional inquiry.

Mr. Wilson is a member of the House Armed Services Intelligence subcommittee that is conducting closed hearings into Central Intelligence Agency involvement in the Watergate scandal.

He said the subcommittee was unable to learn from Mr. Haldeman and Mr. Ehrlichman how a White House request was relayed to the C.I.A. for undercover-type equipment to be used by E. Howard Hunt Jr., one of the convicted Watergate burglary conspirators.

When asked in an interview what the Senate investigating committee headed by Senator Sam J. Ervin Jr., Democrat of North Carolina, would obtain from testimony by Mr. Halde-
