

If you have no interest in this, return it and I'll have a dupe for separate filing. But do keep it if it does interest. I think it tells just a little more. As you can see, they have not yet come up with the Bay Pigs era contract that I suspect was with this department. I think I have sent you my notes on what I've already learned from this FOI request, only the second to be really productive outside court. Colclough is Mullen stockholder, I think. She is in 70s. Do you think one would contract the writing of picture captions? Or suppose Miss Dickinson can be off on the date? Note that they had the "in-house" capability to begin with and finally used it. But if she is right on the date, it is not from from the Castro beginnings. HW 1/28/74

Agree with you: contracting picture captions outside not improbable, assuming they had no in-house capability which they obviously had.
