Dear Ed, If I had been at my desk when you phoned last night I'd have had your letter before me and would have asked more about your report: "During an NBC interview Barker (in ~~turns~~ 'throw away' lines) alluded to Hunt's 'examination' of a woman who had returned from Cuba with some 'strange stories' of the RFK assassination..." Could you amplify at all, beginning when on NBC, what program, etc. There are some odd things about this. First of all, unless she were a refugee, it is unlikely that any woman who went to Cuba and then returned to the U.S. would have spoken voluntarily or freely with one of Hunt's political views. Of course, if he had been in his official capacity, and at the time of the RFK job he was still CIA, it could have been different. Was she a Cuban, emigrating? Any more on the purpose of Hunt's interview? Or how we could learn from NBC?

On Barker's dark hints of unrevealed CIA jobs, without doubt there are these and unless they are domestic he will not talk. If he really meant for the Plumbers, then I believe this is one of his and their levers. I know of some. Best HW 4/19/74
