

Earl Warren, who also calls himself Edward L. and Ed Warren, is really Robert Dietrich, John Baxter, Gordon Davis, David St. John and others.

He is not the Supreme Court's former Chief Justice but a would-be James Bond to whom the extramarital sex came vicariously, in <sup>46</sup>hurry-up novels written under an assortment of these names.

and military
He claims this diplomatic/career:

[ attache at the United States embassies in Paris, France, 1948-9; Vienna, Austria, 1949-50; Mexico City, Mexico, 1950-3;

political officer, Far East Command, Tokyo, 1954-6;

first secretary and consul, Montevideo, Uruguay, 1957-60;

consultant to the Department of Defense, 1960-5; and

"with Department of State, Washington, 1968-70."

During all of this time, all of these people were really one, Everette Howard Hunt, engaged in an assortment of CIA dirty-works while enjoying diplomatic status and immunities.

Now, who E. Howard Hunt really is is the mysterious Frank Bender, the operational chief of the greatest fiasco-political stupidity in American history, The Bay of Pigs.

Thus, <sup>Hunt</sup> ~~he~~ is the man who <sup>edged</sup> ~~brought~~ the world to the brink of World War III.

~~Having taken the world to the brink of nuclear incineration, he earned the final~~

~~credentials~~ necessary for employment as a consultant to President Richard Nixon. Hunt listed as his business address at the time he was caught in his deepest subversion,

"The White House, Washington, D.C."

This is the one unquestionably honest self-representation of his career. He was a consultant to the President. His office address was The White House, and as part of his work for the President he had an office, listed and secret telephones, and he did use the White House letterhead.

Hunt, Bender, Baxter, St. John, Warren, Dietrich, and Davis was Nixon's spook-in-residence until caught by a combination of accident, stupidity and incredible stringiness while rolling in a fortune of secret funds in everyday criminal activity the intent of which was to eliminate American political life as we have known it.

Between his almost-successful venture in tempting ~~was~~ global incineration and his multifaceted career as Nixon's chief domestic spook, Hunt was ~~engaged in~~ an official but also illegal career that was part of his White House apprenticeship, domestic intelligence.

There came a time when his domestic spooking, prohibited by law for his employer, the CIA, coincided with his services for a CIA-connected public-relations agency, Robert R. Mullen & Co. Robert F. Bennett, President of this agency, was later to claim that Hunt was a hired pen, a mere copy hack, in effect. Actually, Hunt says he was vice president and a director.

At the time Hunt's path crossed mine, much to my disadvantage, back in 1965 - while he was working for the CIA - Hunt claimed to represent a literary agency in both New York and Washington. This connection lasted until about 1969. During that time it appears that he used one of the secret addresses of the spooking Mullen agency. Long after Mullen claimed to have fired him, Hunt was still getting secret phone and mail service with Mullen's, outside Mullen's offices, paid for by Mullen.

Hunt's connection with the literary agents, Littauer & Wilkinson, seems to coincide with my being sent to them by The Saturday Evening Post, which had expressed interest in mine and the first book on the Warren Commission and the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. Almost as soon as Littauer & Wilkinson started to "represent" me, the deal I believed set was killed. By the most remarkable of coincidences, that book, WHITEWASH: THE REPORT ON THE WARREN REPORT, says Lee Harvey Oswald had intelligence connections. That is in the chapter I had written with magazine use in mind, a use later achieved in another magazine.

According to Congress and the law, domestic-intelligence activities are illegal for the CIA. And according to its former Director, Richard Helms, himself an up-from-the-ranks dirty-wroks expert, there has never been any. "Trust us", he told the nation's unquestioning editors in his one public appearance as Chief Spook of them all.

For doubters who believe Helms' plea, I have this reassurance: Hunt is not by any means the only case of domestic CIA operations. When he told this big lie ~~that~~ <sup>Helms</sup> had already been the successful defendant in the Heine case in federal district court in Baltimore, where he had established <sup>T</sup>he Agency's right to libel through its agents inside the United States those who came from other lands and whose politics were not congenial to The Agency's preferences.

The CIA has conducted surveillance of me in my public appearances. I have carbon <sup>its</sup> ~~the~~ transcripts of what I said, for one example. <sup>Its agents engaged in</sup> ~~and~~ excessively flattering descriptions of me as "that old nemesis of the CIA", which is false, for I served voluntarily in its fore-runner, the O.S.S; and as the holder of the "all-time track-record" for its interest in the fields of my investigative and literary activity.

Oswald was alleged to have had anti-Castro Cuban connections, a fiction. This fabrication was foisted off on the FBI and the Warren Commission by some of Hunt's connections, their friends and their friends' connections. I have the FBI reports on this trickery, an enormous diversion and political obfuscation that blunted and diluted the FBI's investigation of that assassination. (One of these revanchist characters later pulled the same ploy when Robert Kennedy was killed, his qualifications for becoming Dade County, Florida - Miami - Republican chairman.) One of these strange, dedicated men was arrested inside the Watergate. Another in these FBI files was the business associate of a second man arrested there, a man ~~never~~ <sup>never</sup> properly identified before or ~~at~~ <sup>at</sup> the trial, Bernard Barker. Barker was really Hunt/Bender's Bay of Pigs second-in-command, "Bernie". His crony, Miguel Augustin Suarez, is said by these same/FBI reports to have predicted the assassination of JFK two weeks before it happened.

(Barker had both FBI and CIA connections. He is not mentioned in those FBI reports.)

Still "coincidental" coincidences" until I exposed them, beginning with the writing that took me to Littauer & Wilkinson - and Hunt when he was with CIA - were these official secrets:

Oswald used the return address of the political adjunct of Hunt's Bay of Pigs operation, the Cuban Revolutionary Council;

Oswald got his maximum pre-assassination attention in what I characterized as a spook's establishing of a cover, pretendedly pro-Castro picketing outside the New Orleans ~~Quinn's~~ International Trade Mart, which housed

Latin American Reports, published by another CIA man, William George Gaudet;

The Free Cuba Committee, which just happens to have been a "client" of the Mullen agency. It got a half-million yearly from the CIA.

(In several other cities, the hardly-solvent Latin American Reports and The Free Cuba committee were officed in the same place. And, still "coincidence", of course, this same Gaudet also launched another digression in the JFK assassination, an attempt to link Oswald's assassin, Jack Ruby, with a nephew of Leon Trotsky, who happens to be a very wealthy practitioner of capitalism.)

CIA Hunt and CIA/Bennett are co-working Nixonians in more than one Nixon project.

Their endeavors on behalf of the President range from getting his daughter on national TV during the re-election campaign, paid for with a hefty chunk of <sup>public</sup> money appropriated for "Health, Education and Welfare", to setting up <sup>scores</sup> ~~scores~~ of phoney "front" committees through which thousands and thousands of unaccounted <sup>for</sup> dollars were funnelled to the secret coffers from which <sup>H</sup> Hunt et al were financed in their nefarious~~s~~ subversive projects that have come to be known by the diminutive "The Watergate Caper".

And who can doubt that the bank in which these unaccounted <sup>for</sup> CIA-Nixon Hunt, CIA-Nixon-Mullen-Bennett funds were deposited is that of the same True Davis, who is responsible for the flap about McGovern's short-lived vice-presidential running mate, Senator Tom Eagleton, and his emotional health?

This, too, is but another of those "coincidences". <sup>is</sup> ~~This is~~, after all, a small world.

With faith in "coincidences", it can be understood that there is no special significance to the fact that <sup>the "unemployed"</sup> Hunt was represented by the prestigious law firm of Hogan & Hartson, expensive and ~~prestigious~~ <sup>more than</sup> very large for Washington, with ~~over~~ 50 lawyers on the staff. William Bittman represented Hunt, with associates. Hogan & Hartson also did CIA work. And Bittman, as a federal prosecutor, by these kinds of coincidences, helped convict <sup>the</sup> the <sup>protege and</sup> anti-Nixon <sup>other</sup> party's Bobby Baker, friend/~~and~~ <sup>convicting</sup> political ally of the late President Lyndon B. Johnson. Bittman served a similar role in the ~~jauling~~ of Teamster President Jimmy Hoffa. <sup>in</sup> In both cases the federal prosecutors falsely denied ~~the~~ other spooking, phone-tapping, and got caught lying. Can there be reasonable doubt that it again is no more than coincidence that Nixon's administration pardoned Hoffa and Hoffa's Teamster's endorsed Nixon for re-election?

Hunt's wife died in a still-unexplained plane crash as she was carrying $10,000 in cash, in $100-dollar bills, the same denomination as the Watergate cash, to a man in Chicago who did not expect it, he says. <sup>Harold Carlstead</sup> He is her cousin by marriage. <sup>He</sup> He also says it was for a business deal of long planning, and so he didn't expect it. As a certified public accountant, this same Harold Carlstead also explains that untraceable funds are normal in normal business dealings. Parelleling this combination of explanations is the public reporting that Hunt's co-defendants who ~~like~~ like him, copped ~~pleas~~ pleas of guilty, which forecloses their testimony in court, are being paid by "laundered" funds that can't be traced. In turn, this parallels the similar "laundering" of Nixon's unexplained campaign funds through Mexican fronts, perhaps as much as a million dollars of them.

(Hunt, it should be remembered, was a CIA spook in Mexico during 1950-3. He fled Washington at the time the Watergate case broke, flying to ~~Mexico~~ Los Angeles, where he picked up a lawyer with whom he flew to Mexico. Thereafter, when this ~~secret~~ fortune in Nixon's ~~unaccounted~~ <sup>secret</sup> funds ~~were~~ <sup>was</sup> traced to an aging Mexican lawyer, ~~Manuel~~ Manuel Ogarrio Daguere, Ogarrio's denial of knowing Hunt, made through his son Alejandro, not in person, was limited to the period of Hunt's White House employment.)

When Hunt got in all this trouble by getting <sup>m</sup> himself caught in Nixonian crime, his late wife, Dorothy, was in Spain. She did not ~~hasten~~ <sup>speed</sup> home to be at his side or care for their four minor children while he was hiding from the FBI. However, when she suffered this fatal ~~great~~ tragedy, his behavior was the opposite of hers. He ~~went~~ <sup>flew</sup> to Chicago and returned in the travel alone. such great haste it seems impossible that the airline schedules could have permitted ~~it~~ The given reason was to identify her body. It had been identified <sup>already</sup> by Cousin Carlstead, and Hunt didn't stay there long enough to mourn or make funeral arrangements.

What is known to have been with Mrs. Hunt when she died is this $10,000 in $100 bills; $585 besides that; a check-book showing more than $3,000 in one account, a not bad financial condition for two people who had been unemployed for ~~more than~~ a half year when they were supposedly saddled with the expensive Hunt legal costs; <sup>and a neuro-surgeon, Dr. Norman Horowitz,</sup> (the name of a neurologist who claims never to have seen her; <sup>Dr. Gary Morris,</sup> and that of a hypnotist, with multiple addresses and phone listings in the Washington phone book, a man who disappeared before he could be located by reporters, all his phones having been disconnected.

If the sinister-minded think Hunt ~~was~~ flew to and from Chicago in such inordinate haste just to get that $10,585 in cash, well, he didn't succeed. The ~~was~~ authorities latched onto it for the one reason that can't make sense, to be sure ~~taxes~~ had been paid on it. A month and a half later this money was released to "Hunt's lawyer". In Chicago this lawyer happens to be a former fellow Assistant United States Attorney with Bittman, one Michael <sup>B.</sup> Nash. Nash went from federal employment into his own law firm, no partners.

Mrs. Hunt also had other names and numbers with her. When a Chicago reporter dialed one, Bill Bittman answered the phone, demanded, "How the Hell did you get my unlisted number?" and promptly hung up.

When a man who has made policy for a former President with whose views he was at sharp variance winds up as a confidential advisor to the man that President defeated, Hunt's relationship with Kennedy and Nixon - when a man who has almost crisped the world into ash gets into the White House even as a tourist - there is fuel for the fires of suspicion. However, it need not be regarded as suspicious that

a) the immediate cause of Mrs. Hunt's death had never been announced; and

b) none of the 45 who died in the United Airlines December 8, 1972 crash that took her life, according to Cook County Coroner Dr. Andrew J. Toman, had "cyanide poisoning in sufficient quantities to cause death" in their bloodstreams. The cyanide was found by Dr. Toman attributed the cyanide to the burning of foam rubber and plastics in the plane. If in 1967 the Federal Aviation Agency denied that burning parts of planes Toxicologist Dr. George Christopoulos could generate poisonous gases, federal lies are not new.

Not even in The Watergate Caper, where the White House passed the word that Hunt was not employed there, for example, when he was.

There likewise need be no ~~flareup~~ <sup>flareup</sup> of paranoia over the fact that Mrs. Hunt wrote more than half the insurance written for her fatal flight by machine in the airport before takeoff, nor over the fact that this $250,000 policy was not her only insurance.

Nor over none of it having been paid to Hunt prior to the time he used her policies as surety bond to get himself out of jail when he copped his guilty plea.

However, there can be reasonable concern about the diligence <sup>lack of</sup> of the federal government and the Nixon administration in prosecuting its own agents, <sup>by</sup> ~~meaning~~ <sup>and</sup> ~~itself~~ <sup>when</sup>

Six of the seven it could not avoid charging with assorted serious crimes had CIA connections, <sup>T</sup> ~~and~~ three of the seven had had like relationship with the FBI. <sup>Two served both.</sup>

There should be serious concern over the deficiencies of the indictments, <sup>They do not</sup> ~~which don't~~ <sup>at</sup> charge all the known federal crimes committed and mention only $1,700 of the more than

20, 000

~~six-figure~~ total of Nixon's secret re-election funds known to have been allocated for this criminal activity, of the approximately million dollars of such secret funds.

There well might be apprehension about the conduct of the judge, appointed when Nixon was vice-president, <sup>John Sirica</sup> who became chief judge of the district through seniority, <sup>He</sup> and who ~~siz~~ seized the case for himself, out of the regular rotation, <sup>when he exceeds</sup> the charges of the indictment and in this and other ways <sup>and</sup> ~~says~~ <sup>lays</sup> the foundation for judicial reversal and exculpation of the guilty and their principles <sup>and says</sup> he doesn't give a damn about what happens on appeal. It <sup>constant</sup> ~~all his~~ bluster about bringing all the truth and fact to light <sup>if desirable</sup> - which is not the function of a court of law or of a judge - he has yet to add a single thing not ~~previously~~ reported in the papers. When he has asked questions, <sup>shunt of</sup> Judge John Sirica ~~has~~ stopped ~~at~~ the obvious ones that could add to public knowledge. While proclaiming a unique dedication to the workings of justice, Sirica, single-handed except for the pre-trial help of the Nixon administrations and its deficiencies in <sup>the</sup> ~~the~~ prosecution <sup>of</sup> ~~of~~ itself, may have completely ~~frustrated~~ the functioning of the system of laws.

So, there are <sup>troubling</sup> unasked and unanswered questions about the apprehended, dedicated ~~wrong~~ and their identified and unidentified associates and higher-ups; about ~~the~~ previous careers and previous criminal activities, as unpunished as so many are also of official sponsorship; about whether federal spooks <sup>agencies</sup> merely trained those caught for the kind of domestic subversion in which they were engaged and about whether the federal spooks were part of the devious enterprise; and about how close to Nixon, personally, all this <sup>ordinary crime</sup> unparalleled ~~common~~ and political criminality ends.

His closest White House and re-election-committee associates were part of it. The remaining question ~~is~~: was the President himself?
