

Mr. Gray. Senator Tunney, I have checked the records and I do not find any indication that Mr. Hunt told the FBI he thought that all the effects in his office were not turned over to the FBI. It is a matter of record with the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia, however, that on October 11, 1972, Mr. Hunt swore to an affidavit, which was part of a motion for return of property and to suppress evidence filed on his behalf with the court. That affidavit of Mr. Hunt's specifically mentions a "Hermes" notebook and a "name-finder" notebook as being among the items which were in his effects in Room 338 Old Executive Office Building. These alleged items were not among the materials which White House personnel removed from Mr. Hunt's office and which Mr. Dean and Mr. Fielding turned over to the FBI on June 27, 1972. [The June 27 date was subsequently changed to June 26.]
