

Mexico city directory

The New York Public Library does not have the information you seek.

The Mexican consulate says it does not have it.

The Mexican Chamber of Commerce does not answer the phone. I will try again.

The Mexican Tourist Council does not have the information but suggests it may be obtained by application to that division of the government called Department of the Federal District which, in Spanish, would be Departamento Distrito Federal, Zocalo, Mexico, D.F.

If I knew more specifically what you are looking for I might be able to devise ways of obtaining what you seek.

Let me know if there is something more I can do.
