Was McCune notes on:

"Robert V. Muller is listed as representing Sears, Roebuck & Co. in The 1960 Farm/City Week brochure (see file) Could this be the man who became Henry Cabot Lodge's campaign manager in the 1964 primaries? It figures, because Muller was trying to get P.S. contracts from the Dept. of Ag while Benson was Gen. Secy."

"Or is Ezra's old friend named Robert R. Muller, same as clip in this file from C.G. I worked with some Robert Muller at Kiplinger's for a while, during which time he was also writing editorials for Life magazine."
