

Jail Term Stayed For C. Arnholt Smith

SAN DIEGO, Calif., June 18 (UPI)—A last-minute stay of the jail sentence of millionaire financier C. Arnholt Smith, a close friend of President Nixon, was issued today by the Fourth District Court of Appeals.

The jail order was issued last week by Judge Paul Overton after Smith refused to answer questions relating to the extortion trial of Robert Daggett, 49, La Mesa, and his brother Pliny Daggett, 50, San Diego.

They are accused of trying to obtain money in return for favorable testimony.
