

—The Miami Herald reported that a man working as a police undercover agent says convicted Watergate burglar Eugenio Martinez offered him $700 a week to work as a political spy during last year's Democratic National Convention. The man, Pablo Manuel Fernandez, said he infiltrated the Vietnam Veterans Against the War while working for the FBI and the Miami police. He said he turned down the offer to spy "for the Republican Party."

AP 5/24/73