

2 'Plumbers' To Escape Prosecution

E. Howard Hunt (in photo) and David R. Young were granted immunity from prosecution in the Ellsberg break-in trial that opens next week by Chief U.S. District Judge George L. Hart yesterday. Hunt is shown leaving court room where he and Young did not speak to each other. Special Prosecutor Leon Jaworski told the judge that both men had submitted affidavits saying they would take the Fifth Amendment if called to the witness stand without the immunity order.
