

'Grazed In Kennedy Shooting'

Dallas

A Dallas auto salesman told the Dallas Times Herald yesterday that one of the three bullets fired during the assassination of President Kennedy went wild, crashed into a curb and apparently grazed him.

Last week, KRLD-TV said in a copyright story that the third shot went wild. The station quoted a source close to the Warren Commission as saying the first bullet apparently struck both President Kennedy and Texas Governor John Connally and the second hit the President in the head.

The 27-year-old salesman, who asked that his name not be used, said either the bullet or a concrete chip grazed his face as he stood by a concrete abutment on the east side of the triple underpass watching the motorcade as it turned on Elm and Houston. He said he thought it was the second bullet fired.
