DALLAS, Tex. AP - Wreath-laying ceremonies and brief remarks will highlight the eighth anniversary Monday of the assassination here of President John F. Kennedy.

Mayor Wes Wise, accompanied by a Roman Catholic bishop, a rabbi and a Baptist minister, will place a wreath at the Kennedy Memorial located about a block from the building that housed the Texas School Book Depository. The old brick building has since been closed.

It was from that point that the Warren Commission concluded that Lee Harvey Oswald shot Kennedy.

The 11 a.m. ceremonies are sponsored by the Greater Dallas Council of Churches.
