Angola Reported Getting $50 Million in U.S. Arms

NYTimes

By DAVID BINDER DEC 1 2 1975

Special to The New York Time

United States has sent $25 advisers in Angola. million in arms and support Since mid-October, Cuba has funds to Angola over the last sent infantry weapons million in supplies to counter soldiers in combat.

a 1,200-mile frontier Angola.

He said the secret United States operation was an attempt "to create a stalemate" in the Angolan civil war.

Soviet Aid Cited

Strife broke out in July in launchers and tanks. the former Portuguese colony These launchers for 122-mm. and has intensified since Angola rockets and the Soviet T-54

Soviet Union had sent 27 ship- is the Portuguese acronym for loads of military supplies since the Popular Movement for the the spring and, since October, Liberation of Angola. has flown "30 to 40" suppliy missions with huge AN-22 cargo planes. He said there Continued on Page 8, Column 4

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11-The were about 200 Soviet military three months, a high-ranking troops to Angola. As of last Government official said today, and plans to send another $25 matted there were 4,000 Cuban soldiers in combat.

million in supplies to country the large-scale military intervention there by the Soviet Union and Cuba.

Today, another night-gallang official said there was evidence that Cuba now had "close to 5,000" men in Angola. Cuban The official said that the first infantry and artillery units have $25 million was distributed by been seen on all three major the Central Intelligence Agency, battle sectors in the northern mostly through Zaire, which has and central regions of the with country.

Cuban Role Described

According to intelligence reports reaching Washington the most effective weapons supplied by the Soviet Union are 24 - barrel antipersonnel rocket attained independence Nov. 11. tanks are manned by Cubans, The civil war involves factions the official said, explaining: that grew out of three separate "The MPLA has experience in national liberation movements. guerrilla fighting, but not with The official said that the sophisticated weapons." MPLA

There was a report last week pers of antitank missile launchers and antipersonnel rocket launchers—"the kind you hold on your shoulder that you could use with a minimum of training."

Luanua.

The Zaireans are reported to be fighting alongside the Front for the National Liberation of Angola headed by Holden Roberto, a brother-in-law of Zaire's President Mobulus Sasa Salva

He said he was not in a position to give the designations of the weapons.

"There are no American adfighting.

However, he said that the forces. United States had supplied five artillery spotter planes that flew into the Angolan battle zones, returning to bases in Zaire. "They fly in and out," he Zaire. "They fly in and out," ne said of the American pilots.

The official said that the additional $25 million worth of weapons and support funds to be sent to Angola "shortly" would exhaust the C.I.A.'s funds for such contingencies. Should for such contingencies. Should the Administration want additional funds for the Angola struggle it would need Congressional authorization, the official remarked.

He said additional military equipment was being sent from Western Europe for the forces fighting the Popular Movement. But he did not disclose which President, Mobutu Sese Seko.

Help in the South

The official said that a small "There are no American advisers in Angola, either civilian or military," the official said. He added that no Americans were involved in the ground fighting is now allied with Mr. Roberto's

The National Union forces are fighting the Luanda-based Popular Movement and Cubans in several sectors by a long front parallel to and sometimes crossing the 896-mile Benguela railway, which stretches from the Atlantic to the Zaire fron-

The National Union troops have been bolstered by South African soldiers and equipment, including wheeled armored vehicles, the official said. Although the United States has Although the United States has no hard figures on the size of the South African involvement, American intelligence officials believe that about 1,000 South African soldiers are in Angola.

The American operation was

The American operation But he did not disclose which characterized Tuesday by Seccountries were the suppliers, or retary of State Henry A. Kis-

Continued From Page 1, Col. 4 the nature or amount of the supplies.

"But the Soviet-Cuban involvement is far in excess of anything we or the Europeans are doing," he asserted.

He said that the American intelligence analysts believe this may be a sign of an attempt to train angolans in the use of heavy weapons.

American military supplies were flown mostly by American military supplies were flown mostly by consisted mainly of portable infantry weapons, the official said, including large numbers of antitank missile launchers—"the kind you hold for the Netional Liberties of line details of the Soviet Cuban intelligence and with the Soviet Cuban involvement is far in excess of anything we or the Europeans far in excess of anything we or the Europeans are doing," he asserted.

He said that the American assistance was "secret" and he, too, declined to supply details.

Director of Central Intelligence, said the American assistance was "secret" and he, too, declined to supply details.

Pike Wants Discussion

Mr. Colby shared the rostrum who is chairman of the House Select Committee on Intelligence. After listening to Mr. Colby outfort the Netional Liberties of line details of the Soviet Cuban interest of the supplies.

The Daireans are reported to be fighting alongside the Front listening to Mr. Colby outfort the Netional Liberties of line details of the Soviet Cuban interest of the supplies were declined to give details about it at a news conference. Last night at a Wash-ingon forum William E. Colby, Director of Central Intelligence, and the American assistance was "secret" and he, too, declined to supply details.

Pike Wants Discussion

Mr. Colby shared the rostrum who is chairman of the House Select Committee on Intelligence. After the supplies were flown mostly by many the details about it at a news conference. Last night at a Wash-ingon forum William E. Colby, Director of Central Intelligence, and he, too, declined to supply details.

Pike Wants Discussion

Mr. Colby shared the rostrum who is chairman of the Hou er listening to Mr. Colby outine details of the Soviet-Cuban intervention in Angola Mr. Pike said it was "preposterous" not to discuss the American operation to added.

On Monday Mr. Colby briefed tinho Neto.

A high-ranking Soviet diplomat in Washington questioned about his country's aims in Angola, denied that the Soviet-Cuban involvement was designed to insure a take-over of all of Angola by the Popular Movement headed by Augustinho Neto.

"It is not total," he insisted. "We are just helping them stay alive, that's all. It is equal to your involvement. It is not that big. You have blown it up in your press."

Asked why there were so many Cuban soldiers in Angola, the diplomat replied: "Why don't you ask the Cubans? Secretary Kissinger should get in touch with them."

The diplomat indicated that the Soviet Union had not ruled the Soviet Union had not ruled out the idea of Angolan coalition talks as a means of ending the civil war. But American officials said the Soviet Union had not responded to Mr. Kissinger's proposal that coalition discussions be initiated through the offices of the United States. the offices of the United States and the Soviet Union.