Withdrawal of Cuban Unit
From Golan Is Reported

NYTimes
TEL AVIV, Dec. 23 (UPI)—A Cuban armored brigade that served on the Syrian frontlines for the last two years has been withdrawn and apparently sent to Angola, Government sources said today.

The Israeli sources said the 4,000-man force arrived by airlift shortly after the October 1973 Middle East war and took part in some of the fighting in the war of attrition that lasted until May, 1974.
