

AFTER ASSAULT ON ATTICA PRISON: A prisoner, stripped during a search, being led away by state police and correction guards inside the maximum-security prison shortly after it was retaken from the rebellious inmates.

SEP 16 1971

NYTimes

© The Buffalo Evening News via Associated Press

REMOVING THE INJURED: National Guardsmen carrying a wounded prisoner shortly after the assault. The photographs were taken by a guardsman who took part in action.

art They Chose Targets Carefully During

(C) The Buffalo Evening News via Associated Press

WOUNDED AT ATTICA: Some of the injured on stretchers inside the maximum-security prison after assault Monday