TURDAY, JANUARY 23, 1971

of a defense committee for the members of the group, an-

DARRIGAN FRIENDS

of a derense committee for the two men, the Rev. Howard Moody, pastor of the Judson Memorial Church, said that they were "men of decency, conscience and compassion who have often helped others and who now need help themselves."

Father Berrigan, who had gone "underground" after his conviction last April for destroying draft records in Maryland was arrested at the Stringfellow and Anthony Towne of Rhode Island, who are accused of having harbored the Rev. Daniel J. Berrigan last August.

In announcing the formation of a derense committee for the two men, the Rev. Howard Moody, pastor of the Judson Memorial Church, said that they were "men of decency, conscience and compassion who have often helped others and who now need help themselves."

Father Berrigan, who had gone "underground" after his toonviction last April for destroying draft records in Maryland, was arrested at the Stringfellow-Towne estate on Block Island last Aug. 11.

Key Members Named

The defense committee for the members of the New York Theological Seminary at 235 East 49th Street, include the Rev. Melvin C. Schoonover, dean of continuing education at the seminary; Leon J. Davis, president of Local 1199 of the Drug and Hospital Workers' Union, and with the Rev. Andrew Young, the civil rights leader.

Dr. Stringfellow, a 42-year-old Episcopal theologian and author, and Mr. Towne, also 42 and a poet, read a joint statement in which they denied harboring or concealing Father boring or concealing Father berrigan, a 49-year-old Jesuit who is serving a three-year sentence in Federal prison at Theological Seminary. Other