

2 Berrigans Prisoners For More Than a Year

The Rev. Daniel Berrigan and the Rev. Philip Berrigan, brothers who are Roman Catholic priests, have been serving Federal prison sentences for more than a year for the destruction of draft records in Baltimore in 1967 and in Catonsville, Md., in 1968.

Father Daniel Berrigan, who is 51 years old, began serving a three-year term in April, 1970. Father Philip Berrigan, 50, started serving a six-year sentence in August, 1970. They were denied parole applications last month for reasons that the Federal Parole Board did not specify.

Soon after that, a group of prisoners at the Federal correctional institution in Danbury, Conn., including Father Philip Berrigan, began a hunger strike. Eleven of these prisoners, including Philip Berrigan, have been transferred to the Federal Medical Detention Center in Springfield, Mo., where their hunger strike is continuing.

Father Daniel Berrigan is still confined at Danbury, and according to his attorney, Paul O'Dwyer, is in deteriorating health, suffering from an ulcer, hernia trouble and other complications.
