presidential commission to investigate the Central Intelligence Agency.

Nessen would say only that an individual was undergoing security clearance for the job, but other sources confirmed an earlier Associated Press report that the job is going to Belin. He is expected to attend the opening meeting of the commission here Monday looking into allegations that the CIA engaged in domestic spying on American citizens.

Belin, a partner since 1966 in a Des Moines, Iowa, law firm, is the author of "You Are the Jury," a book defending the findings of the Warren Commission. Mr. Ford was a member of the commission. In 1968, Belin was chairman of Lawyers for Nixon-Agnew.
