

Reagan to Remain on Panel

Washington

Vice President Nelson Rockefeller "talked Ronald Reagan out of resigning" from the CIA probe commission, a Rockefeller spokesman said yesterday.

The spokesman said Reagan offered to resign from the panel because his schedule prevented him from attending the meetings.

Reagan missed his fourth consecutive meeting yesterday, but Rockefeller said Reagan will attend the session February 17.
