A Small, Medium or Large Conspiracy?

by William Raspberry

It is no longer possible to dismiss as conspiracy-mongers those Americans who believe the Warren Commission told us less relevant truth than it knew about the assassination of John F. Kennedy.

....

Just this week, Waggoner Carr, Texas Attorney General at the time of the assassination, wrote Sen. John Tower and Sen. Frank Church (of the Senate committee looking into the CIA) that he hoped they would vote to reopen [the investigation].

That is a very good sign.
