House Probe
Of Leak

Washington OCT 22 1975

The House Ethics Committee voted 7 to 2 yesterday to proceed with hearings on charges that representative Michael Harrington (Dem-Mass.) violated House rules by leaking classified information about the CIA.

The charges were brought by Representative Robin L. Beard (Rep. Tenn.) after Harrington, a former member of the House Armed Services Committee, disclosed secret testimony by Central Intelligence Agency Director William Colby about U.S. efforts to prevent election of Salvador Allende as Chilean president.
