

SFChronicle
5 Named As CIA Workers

JAN 23 1976

London

The Socialist Worker, a small left-wing newspaper, published the names and addresses Wednesday of five men it said were Central Intelligence Agency employees working in London.

The paper said publishing such information was essential "if a campaign is to be built up to drive out these hired murderers of big business."

Associated Press