ACCUSED OFFICERS EXERCISE IN VIETNAM: Four of six Army Special Forces officers who face courts-martial in the alleged killing of a Vietnamese near the place at Longbinh where they are being held. From left: Capt. Leland J. Brumley, Maj. David E. Crew, Col. Robert B.

Rheault and Capt. Budge E. Williams. Two others of lower rank, arrested with the six last July 21, have been paroled, with charges in the slaying of the supposedly duplicitous intelligence agent in abeyance. Three captains will be tried in one group and their seniors at a later time, if ever.
