C167N

czzyyxeea o rz6
WASHINGTON AP - Seven of the eight Green Berets who once faced murder charges in the alleged killing of a South Vietnamese agent have been given reassignments in the Unit-ed States, the Pentagon an-nounced today.

nounced today.

No new assignment has yet been decided upon for the eighth and highest ranking member of the group, Col. Robert Rheault, who was commander of the Green Berets in Vietnam until the controversial case dev oped in July. The Pentagon said Rheault's new job is stil case devel-under consideration. None of the new jobs for the ther men is with a Spec Special other Forces Unit.

Capt. Robert F. Marasco, who was originally identified in the murder charg new job is still under considera-None of the new jobs for the other men is with a Spec Special Forces Unit.

Capt. Robert F. Marasco, who was originally identified in the murder charges as having shot the South Vietnamese agent, will go to the 24th Infantry Division at Ft. Riley, Kan.
Capt. Leland J. Brumley, alleged in the original charges to have knocked out the victim with a shot of morphine, will go to the Army's III Corps at Ft. Hood, Tex.

Hood, Tex. Maj. Thomas Maj. Thomas Middleton is being sent to the headquarters of the 3rd Army at Ft. Mc-Pherson, Ga.

The remaining four men will retain intelligence-related jobs. They are:

Maj. David E. Crew, assigned to the 109th Military Intelligence officer's advanced course at Ft. Holabird, Md.

CWO Edward M. Boyle, as-signed to the 109th Military In-telligence Group, Valley Forge,

Sgt. 1.C. Alvin L. Smith Jr., assigned to the Intelligence Material Development Office at

Ft. Helabird.
Secretary of the Army Stanley
R. Resor directed that the men be returned to the United States
when he announced last month that charges against them would be dropped because the Central Intelligence Agency declined to permit any of its personnel to testify in scheduled courts-martial.

The Pentagon said specific duties of the men will be determined by their new units.

WILLIAMS?

ET. HOLABIRA (SEE KP 11 JAN 70)