

Late News, Sports Bulletins

'Was Warned on Ship'

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP)—Rep. Melvin Laird, R-Wis., charged today the U.S. government had been warned early this month that the North Koreans intended to move against the Navy intelligence ship Pueblo. Laird, chairman of the House Republican Conference, said the North Koreans made known their intentions in a radio broadcast in which the Communists protested that the electronic surveillance ship was causing "considerable difficulty" in the area.

Swim Mark Reset

KIMBERLEY, South Africa (AP)—Karen Muir, South Africa's 15-year-old swimmer, broke the world records for 100 and 200 yards today with a time of 1:00.40 and 2:10.40.