

Career and background of Cord Meyer Jr., filed CIA II.

"His name has surfaced again because he has been the 'spook' in charge of covertly subsidizing the overseas activities of the National Student Association and other youth groups, labor and professional organizations and charitable institutions.